23. Babylon the Great

Revelation contains a shocking message about Babylon—the other woman. Babylon is fallen, and people must escape her charms and her beauty! She is seductive and using her stunning beauty to seduce the children of men. Here you will learn the stunning real identity of spiritual Babylon and how to avoid being hypnotized by her fatal beauty. What could be more important? Every marriage must rely on trust. And in our union with Christ, we must likewise remain faithful to Him and His Word. The book of Revelation speaks about the true bride of Christ, but there is another “woman” who is trying to seduce believers away from God’s Word.

1. How does Jesus describe Babylon in the book of Revelation?

"I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters... And I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication." And upon her forehead [was] a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." (Revelation 17:1, 3-5)

Answer: In Revelation 17:1–5, Jesus describes Babylon as a harlot dressed in red and purple. She is seated on a scarlet-colored beast, which has seven heads and ten horns and sits on many waters.

2. Who is the symbolic pure woman of Revelation chapter 12?

Answer: A pure woman, clothed with the sun, is depicted in Revelation 12:1–6. This pure woman symbolizes God’s pure church, (Gal 4:26, Jer 6:2, Heb 12:22, 23) which is faithful to her husband, Jesus.

3. What does a harlot represent in Bible prophecy?

“Cause Jerusalem to know her abominations. ...But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot” (Ezekiel 16:2,15)

Answer: As a pure woman symbolizes a pure church that is faithful to Jesus, so an impure woman represents an impure, or fallen, church that is unfaithful to Jesus (James 4:4).

4. Can we identify the harlot (church) that is called “Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots” in Revelation chapter 17?

Answer: Yes. It is widely known that there is only one church that claims to be the mother church—the Roman Catholic Church. A prominent Catholic priest said, “That observance [Sunday-keeping] remains as a reminder of the Mother Church from which the non-Catholic sects broke away.” (John A. O’Brien, The Faith of Millions (Huntington, IN: Our Sunday Visitor, Inc., 1974), p. 401)

The points used in Revelation 17 to describe mother Babylon and the beast she rides clearly fit the papacy:

A. She persecuted the saints (Rev 17:6).

B. She was dressed in purple and scarlet (Rev 17:4). The pope often wears the royal color of purple at important functions, and red is the color of the robes of Catholic cardinals.

C. The seven heads of the beast (Rev 17:3) upon which the woman is seated are seven mountains (Rev 17:9). It is well-known that Rome, the headquarters of the papacy, is built upon seven hills, or mountains.

D. The beast is a symbol of the state power (Rev 17:3), the reason for the judgment Babylon is fallen is because of her “fornication with the kings of the earth” (Rev 17:1, 2)

E. She ruled “over the kings of the earth” (verse 18). Alexander Flick says that by the 13th century, the pope was “at least in theory ... the ruler of the whole world in temporal and spiritual affairs.” (The Rise of the Mediaeval Church (New York: Burt Franklin, 1959), 575.) This point could fit no other earthly kingdom or government. The papacy is described in Revelation 17 too clearly for doubt.

Note: Many leaders of the Reformation (Huss, Wycliffe, Luther, Calvin, Zwingli, Melancthon, Cranmer, Tyndale, Latimer, Ridley, and others) taught that the papacy is the power here involved. (George Eldon Ladd, The Blessed Hope (Grand Rapids, MI: William B. Eerdmans Publishing Co., 1956), pp. 32-34.)

5. What is the literal meaning of the word “Babylon,” and what is its origin?

"Let us build ... a tower, whose top [may reach] unto heaven. ... And the LORD said ... let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. Therefore is the name of it called Babel, because the LORD did there confound the language" (Genesis 11:4,6,7,9).

Answer: The words “Babel” and “Babylon” mean “confusion.” The name Babylon originated at the Tower of Babel, which was erected after the Flood by defiant pagans who hoped to build it so high that no floodwaters could ever cover it (Gen 11:4). But the Lord confounded their language, and the resultant confusion was so great they were forced to halt construction. They then called the tower “Babel” (Babylon), or “confusion.” Later, in Old Testament days, a worldwide pagan kingdom named Babylon arose; it was an enemy of God’s people, Israel. It embodied rebellion, disobedience, persecution of God’s people, pride, and idolatry (Jeremiah 39:6, 7; 50:29, 31–34; 51:24, 34, 47; Daniel 3 and 5). In Isaiah chapter 14, God uses Babylon as a symbol of Satan because Babylon was so hostile and devastating to God’s work and His people. In the New Testament book of Revelation, the term “Babylon” is used to signify a religious kingdom that is an enemy of God’s spiritual Israel—His church (Revelation 14:8; 16:19).

6. Who are the harlot daughters of the mother Babylon described in Revelation 17:5?

"And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." (Revelation 17:5)

Answer: They are some of the churches that originally protested the false teachings of mother Babylon and left her during the great Protestant Reformation. But later they began to mimic the principles and actions of the mother and thus became fallen themselves. No woman is born a harlot. Neither were the symbolic Protestant daughter churches born fallen. Any church or organization that teaches and follows Babylon’s false doctrines and practices could become a fallen church or daughter. So Babylon is a family name that embraces both the Mother Church and those of her daughters who are also fallen.

7. In Revelation 17, why is mother Babylon pictured as riding on the beast? What does the beast represent?

Answer: In Revelation 13:1-10, Jesus portrays the papacy as a combination of church and state. In Revelation chapter 17, Jesus depicts the church (the harlot) and state (the beast) as separate entities, though related. The woman is astride the beast, which signifies that the church is in control of the state.

8. What other powers unite with the papacy in fulfilling end-time events?

"And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs [come] out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. “For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, [which] go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.” (Revelation 16:13, 14)

Answer: The dragon of Revelation 12:3, 4 and the false prophet of Revelation 13:11–14 and 19:20 form an alliance with the beast of Revelation 13:1–8, or the papacy.

A. The dragon of Revelation 12 represents Satan working through pagan Rome. The dragon is the red beast that gives the seat to the Papacy or woman. (Rev 13:2, 5 17:3) In these last days the unholy partnership includes non-Christian religions such as Islam, Buddhism, Shintoism, Hinduism, the New Age, secular humanism, etc.

B. The false prophet represents apostate Protestantism centered in the United States, which will take the lead in urging worldwide worship of the beast or Papacy

C. The beast is the papacy in Revelation 16:13, which is an allusion to the beast in Revelation 13. However, the beast from the bottomless pit in Revelation 17:3, 8 is none other than the “scarlet” or “red” beast which is the dragon in Revelation 12. It is also mentioned in Revelation

11:7. Satan is the ultimate king of Babylon. (Isa 14:4, 12) He is a great figure in the final battle or war against God’s people. (Rev 12:17, 16:13, 14, 17:14)

D. These three powers: non-Christian religions and governments, apostate Protestantism, and Roman Catholicism will become allies in Armageddon—the final war against God, His law, and His loyal followers. This coalition is called “Babylon the great” by Jesus in Revelation (Rev 16:19, 18:2)

9. How will organizations with such diverse backgrounds effectively unite?

“These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast” (Revelation 17:13).

Answer: Revelation 16:13, 14 says “unclean spirits like frogs,” which are “spirits of devils,” or demons will unite them through the miracles they will work. Spiritualism—the belief that the dead are alive and can contact the living—will be the tenet that welds all together. Satan and his angels—posing as the spirits of dead loved ones, prophets of old, angels of heaven (2 Corinthians 11:13, 14), and even Christ Himself (Matthew 24:24)—will convince the world that their cause is guided from heaven. Incidentally, all three entities believe that the dead are alive:

A. Catholicism prays to Mary and other dead saints and believes these saints bless their followers with miracles.

B. Non-Christian religions are overwhelmingly based on belief in and worship of spirits of the dead. The New Age stresses “channeling”—supposed talking to the spirits of the dead.

C. Apostate Protestantism believes that the dead are not dead but, rather, alive in heaven or hell. Thus they are susceptible to deception by demons who pose as spirits of the dead, as dead loved ones coming back to give messages from God.

10. For what sins does God indict Babylon?

"Babylon the great is fallen" (Revelation 18:2). "... Is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit... By thy sorceries were all nations deceived." (Revelation 18:2,23).

"The inhabitants of the earth were made drunk" from the wine of abomination and fornication found in her cup. (Revelation 17:2, 4; 18:3).

"The kings of the earth have committed fornication with her" (Revelation 18:3).

Answer: It is an abomination to God for the church to fornicate with the kings of the earth. (Lev 18:22, 23) The wine that fills the cup is the "blood of saints" (Rev 17:6) It is caused by her church and state union. Her fornication. God says that this fornication is so abominable that "the ten horns...make her desolate." The ten horns being the kings of the earth. (Rev 17:12) This is the cause of the judgment "Babylon is fallen." (Rev 17:1, 2, 18:2-4) This is an abomination to God, so much so that it leaves her empty desolate, to the point where the Spirit is no more found in her. (Rev 18:23) This is also the sin that causes her to be "burnt with fire" (Rev 17:16, 18:9)

"And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire." (Leviticus 21:9)

Just as Jerusalem of old was burnt with fire after playing the harlot with Rome professing to have "no king but Caesar" (Matt 24:15, Dan 9:27, John 19:15) so too, because of this final sin, the world, modern Babylon guilty of the same sin, suffers the same fate as is recorded in the judgment in the law of God.

To fall means to turn away from Bible truth and the worship of the true God (2 Peter 3:17, 18). Thus, God is indicting Babylon for (1) conferring with devils by inviting evil spirits into its midst through spiritualism and for (2) deceiving virtually the entire world through lying, demonic spirits. Lies are a type of abomination in the Bible (Proverbs 12:22). Babylon's wine, which contains false teachings, disorients and benumbs those who drink it and makes them spiritually drunk. In contrast, the church is the bride of Christ (Revelation 19:7, 8) and loves Him and is loyal to Him only—which Jesus said means keeping His commandments (John 14:15). Therefore, the papacy is censured here for turning away from her husband, Jesus (James 4:4) and for forming illicit relationships with civil governments (union of church and state) for her support. In addition, Babylon trafficks in the “souls of men” (Revelation 18:11–13); thus, God denounces Babylon for treating people as merchandise rather than as precious children of God.

11. What are some of the false teachings contained in Babylon's wine that make people spiritually drunk and confused?

Answer: Amazingly, some of the most prominent doctrines of Protestantism today are not found in the Bible at all. They have been brought into the Protestant churches by the Mother Church of Rome, who received them from paganism. A few of these false teachings are that:

A. The law of God has been amended or repealed.

God's law can never be changed or repealed (Luke 16:17).

B. The soul is immortal.

The Bible mentions "soul" and "spirit" nearly 1,000 times. Not once is either referred to as immortal. People are mortal (Job 4:17), and none receives immortality until Jesus' Second Advent (1 Corinthians 15:51–54).

C. Sinners burn eternally in hell.

The Bible teaches that sinners will be consumed (put out of existence), both soul and body, in the fire (Matthew 10:28). An eternal hell of torment is not taught in the Bible.

D. Baptism by immersion is not necessary.

Baptism by immersion is the only baptism recognized by Scripture. (Rom 6:1-4, Matt 3:16)

E. Sunday is God's holy day.

The Bible teaches, without question, that God's holy day is the seventh-day Sabbath—Saturday. (Heb 4:2, 4, 9)

Note: These false teachings, once believed, tend to bring “confusion” (which is what the term “Babylon” literally means) and make understanding Scripture much more difficult. The devil is the King of Babylon (Isa 14:4, 12) and wants nothing less than to confuse the minds of the people.*

A Sobering Thought

It's sobering to think that some might unknowingly be drinking Babylon's wine. Perhaps this is all new to you. If so, ask God to guide you (Matthew 7:7, 8). Then search the Scriptures (Acts 17:11). Promise that you will follow where Jesus leads, and He will not permit you to end up in error (John 7:17).

12. Who will be on the Lord's side in the battle of Armageddon?

Answer: In this final battle, the angels of heaven (Hebrews 1:13, 14; Matthew 13:41, 42) and God's people—the remnant (Revelation 12:17)—will be allied with Jesus, who leads the armies of heaven (Revelation 19:11–16) against Satan and his supporters.

God's remnant is composed of those who refuse the falsehoods of Babylon. They are known for (1) their love of Jesus (1 John 5:2, 3), (2) their loyalty to him, their faith, and their patience. (Revelation 14:12), and (3) their obedience to His Word and commandments (Revelation 12:17; John 8:31, 32).

13. What will be Satan's strategy in this final conflict between God's truth and Satan's lies?

Answer: Though Satan hates God and His Son, he and his demons will pose as holy angels and as devoted Christian clergymen (2 Corinthians 11:13–15). What he presents as evidence for his side will seem so righteous, spiritual, and Jesus-like that nearly everybody on earth will be deceived and follow him (Matthew 24:24). He will doubtless use the Bible, as he did when tempting Jesus in the wilderness (Matthew 4:1–11). Satan's logic is so persuasive that it deceived one third of the angels of heaven, Adam and Eve, and, at the time of the Flood, everybody on earth except eight people.

It always starts with having us question whether or not God's word is true. (Gen 3:1, Matt 4:2)

14. What is God's counter-strategy?

"To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them" (Isaiah 8:20).

Answer: If an angel of heaven comes to you telling you something, it must be tested. Spirits of devils are on the loose, and they are speaking through humanity, taking on the form of men, loved ones who have passed on, and also posing as angels of light. God always counters Satan's lies with truth. When tempted by Satan in the wilderness, Jesus repeatedly quoted Scripture (Matthew 4:1–11). Through His remnant people, God will tell the truth about the unbiblical nature of Babylon the great. He will make it clear that Babylon is presenting a false gospel (Galatians 1:8–12), which has opened the door for billions to be deceived and lost.

15. Will God's end-time messages of warning and hope be effective?

"And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory." (Revelation 18:1)

Answer: In Scripture, angels represent messengers or messages (Hebrews 1:13, 14). God's end-time appeal is symbolized by a mighty angel whose power is so great that the entire world is lightened with God's truth and glory. (Rev 18:1) This final, God-given message will go to the inhabitants of the entire world (Revelation 14:6; Mark 16:15; Matthew 24:14).

16. What final, urgent appeal will Jesus make to those who are in Babylon?

Answer: He will say, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities." (Revelation 18:4, 5)

Please notice that Jesus refers to many people in Babylon as "my people." There are millions of sincere Christians in Babylon who have not yet heard this warning message. These people love the Lord supremely, and Jesus says they are His children.

17. How will people who love Jesus but who are now in Babylon respond when they hear His appeal to come out?

Answer: Jesus says, "And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, [and] one shepherd... My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:" (John 10:16, 27)

Jesus recognizes His children who are in Babylon. Further, He promises to call them out of Babylon before it is destroyed. And, most glorious of all, Jesus promises that His people who are yet in Babylon will hear and recognize His voice and come out to safety.

Be sure not to Miss the next study concerning the Bride of Christ.

18. If you are in Babylon, are you willing to heed Jesus' urgent appeal to come out of her?

Answer:

THOUGHT QUESTIONS

1. Shouldn't I remain in Babylon and try to reform her instead of coming out?

No. Jesus says Babylon is going to be destroyed, not reformed. She will become hopelessly drunk with her wine (identified as false doctrine in Revelation 18:2–6). It is for this reason that He calls His people out (Revelation 18:4). It is very dangerous to stay in churches where error is being pressed upon the mind.

2. Who are the kings of the east of Revelation 16:12?

The kings of the east are Christ and his angels. We are told in Revelation 16:15 "Behold I come as a thief" which is an allusion to the second coming of Christ (Matt 24:43) who is coming from the east. (Matt 24:27) They are called kings of the east because that is the direction from which heavenly beings approach the earth. Note the following, for example:

- A. Jesus' second coming will be from the east (Matthew 24:27).
- B. God's glory comes from the east (Ezekiel 43:2).
- C. Revelation's sealing angel comes from the east (Revelation 7:2).
- D. The sun, symbolizing Jesus, rises in the east (Malachi 4:2).
- E. Tidings out of the east symbolize the gospel (Dan 11:44)

In verse 19 it also tells us that "Babylon...fell" and "was divided into three parts". That threefold union of the dragon, beast, and false prophet, becomes a three part division eventually. The fall caused by the fornication with the kings of the earth all is similar to the fall of ancient Babylon when Cyrus came and dried up the Euphrates to take the city. (Dan 5:27, 28, Rev 16:12) Cyrus is called "mine anointed" in Isaiah 45:1. The Hebrew word for "anointed" is "Messiah" which means "Christ" (Joh 1:41). Cyrus the Persian King of old dried up the Euphrates and destroyed ancient Babylon. In the same sense Christ "the King of Kings" (Rev 19:16), is leading his angels back to this earth to execute judgment on modern Babylon.

3. Does the warning about the fall of Babylon imply that Babylon has not always been fallen?

Yes. Many of the churches comprising Babylon have stood strong, tall, and loyal to Jesus in the past. The founders were flawed but devoted people of God who were searching the Bible diligently to discover all of its truth. Not all churches are fallen today. They may be Babylon, confused in regard to doctrine, but until they take that step of seeking civil power or accepting it, they are yet to fall. (Rev 17:1, 2, 18:2-4) However, any church that teaches mother Babylon's false doctrines and follows her practices could become one of her fallen daughters.

4. What do the 10 kings of Revelation 17:12–16 represent?

The 10 kings symbolize the nations of the world. The 10 toes of the image of Daniel chapter 2 and the 10 horns of the monster beast of Daniel chapter 7 symbolize the 10 kingdoms of Europe. However, the meaning is broadened in Revelation chapters 11 through 18 to mean all "the kings of the earth" or "all the nations." (See Revelation 16:14; 18:3.)

5. What does the symbolism of "unclean spirits" and "frogs" mean in Revelation 16:13, 14?

A frog captures its prey with its tongue, which could symbolize the counterfeit gift of tongues now sweeping the world. Please remember that miracles, including the gift of tongues, prove only one thing—supernatural power. A counterfeit of the gift of God's Holy Spirit. (1 Cor 12:28) When God gave the gift of tongues in Acts chapter 2, he signified it by "fire...from heaven" (Acts 2:1-4) This is very similar to the "fire from heaven" which is also described as "miracles" in (Revelation 13:13, 14) But the Bible informs us that supernatural power can be from either God or Satan. It further explains that Satan, posing as an angel (2 Corinthians 11:14), will utilize supernatural miracles so effectively that almost the entire world will be deceived and follow him (Revelation 13:3). At present, he is using the counterfeit gift of tongues to weld together churches and religions of all kinds—including pagans. Each of these feels that the gift of tongues is proof of authenticity. However, it may be another “spirit”. We Must Test the Spirits

The Bible warns that we must test the spirits (1 John 4:1). If they do not agree with the Bible, they are counterfeits (Isaiah 8:19, 20). Further, the true gifts of the Holy Spirit are never given to one who deliberately and knowingly disobeys God (Acts 5:32). There is a true gift of tongues. It is a miraculous enabling to fluently speak foreign languages previously unlearned and unknown by the speaker (Acts 2:4–12). God uses this gift when needed to present His end-time message to those of other languages. It was needed at Pentecost because 17 language groups were in the crowd (Acts 2:8) and His disciples didn’t know all of those languages.

6. Will the New Age movement play a major role in the final end-time conflict between good and evil?

Without a doubt! It is strongly involved with the occult, psychic phenomena, and spiritism. Most a-list actors today practice what is called “method acting” and many who play roles allow a spirit to enter into them so that they can do these performances. Spiritism will be a major factor in the closing drama of earth. Combined with the supernatural power of the counterfeit gift of tongues and allied with the end-time worldwide coalition of churches, spiritism will sweep the globe. The New Age belief in spirit communication and reincarnation is simply ancient paganism in new garb. Its belief in an immortal soul that can communicate with earth people is the same falsehood Satan told Eve in Eden: “Ye shall not surely die” (Genesis 3:4).

7. It’s clear that God reveals activities of the antichrist, or papacy, in Daniel chapter 7 and Revelation chapters 13, 17, and 18. Is the antichrist mentioned elsewhere in Scripture?

Yes. The antichrist, power (or its activities) is referred to in at least nine prophecies of the Old and New Testaments: Daniel 7; Daniel 8, 9; Daniel 11; Revelation 12; Revelation 13; Revelation 16; Revelation 17; Revelation 18; and Revelation 19. Surely, when God stresses the same power nine different times, He wants us to listen!

8. Did Satan’s kingdom called “Babylon” originate at the Tower of Babel?

No. It originated when Satan rebelled against God in heaven. The prophet Isaiah characterized Lucifer at the time of his fall as the king of Babylon (Isaiah 14:4, 12–15). God has looked upon Satan’s kingdom as Babylon from the very beginning of sin. Satan’s avowed aim is to wipe out God’s kingdom and establish his own. Jesus said there are only two sides (Matthew 7:13, 14). Every soul on earth will finally line up on the side of either Jesus or Babylon. It is a matter of life and death. Those who serve and support Jesus will be saved in His heavenly kingdom. Those who support Babylon will be destroyed. And there is very little time left for decision making. This is why heeding Jesus' end-time warning against Babylon is so extremely crucial and urgent.

9. In Revelation 16:12, what is meant by the waters of the Euphrates River being dried up to prepare the way for the kings of the east?

"The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness." (Joel 1:20) It is a symbol of desolation, emptiness. The river dries up because of a lack of rain. (Joe 2:23) And it is the overspreading of abominations that makes desolate. When speaking of water Jesus said He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water...But this spake he of the Spirit..." (John 7:38, 39) Furthermore, Jesus said "the words that I speak...they are spirit" (John 6:63) Out of Jesus mouth comes the "voice of many waters" (Rev 1:15) The water is a symbol of God's spirit. The words come out of the mouth, and they proceed from the heart. (Matt 12:34) We are God's temple, so it is no wonder that the living water proceeds from our bellies. (John 7:38, 39)

In Revelation 16:14 we are told that coming "out of the mouth" of the dragon, beast and false prophet are "unclean spirits". In Revelation 12 we are told that it is a "flood" coming "out of the mouth of the dragon" (Rev 12:15, 16) This again symbolizing "spirit" yet "unclean" or "polluted". (See Rev 16:4)

Before the ancient kingdom of Babylon was captured, the water of the River Euphrates, which passed underneath the walls of the city, was diverted into a man-made lake bed. This diversion permitted Darius' army to capture the city at night by entering from underneath the walls through the empty riverbed.

The drying up of the Euphrates is a symbol of God removing his spirit from the earth. Or from modern day Babylon. The Euphrates is a symbol of God's spirit of life that flowed out from the throne of God. (Gen 2:10-14, Rev 22:1, 2)

The word is spirit (John 6:63) and it is given to Babylon. However as it is continually rejected, it is finally withdrawn and thus "the voice" of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." (Revelation 18:23)

The spirit withdrawn, Babylon is left desolate, empty, and finally destruction or judgment follows. (Rev 18:4)
