Thunberg Meets Pope - Earth Day Sundays - Climate Emergency

By DAVID BARRON

WWW.THETHIRDANGELSMESSAGE.COM

Prophetic Update –
April 16th, 2019 Greta Thunberg scolds European Union leaders for not taking action concerning the current climate crisis exclaiming that extinction levels are at unprecedented levels and that the leaders must act as if their house is on fire.

prophesied over 100 years ago.

She said that the children can't vote and so they are taking action by striking from school. In last month's newsletter we talked about the climate strikes and the agenda of the European Union as well as the United Nations to “reintegrate Sunday protection into EU law.” (COMECE Future of Work Page 34)

Amazingly a month has passed and so much has happened in this month which I will discuss briefly here. The final events will truly be rapid ones.

Greta Thunberg meets Pope Francis tells him to join our Climate Strikes

Last month it was people striking from giving birth because they felt that the world would end by 2030 and that it would be evil to bring children into the world like that. This on top of millions of children striking from School.

Pope Francis endorsed the movement saying “Thank you for standing up for the climate.” While Greta had a sign that said “Join the Climate Strike...Celebrate Laudato Si on May 24th.” This celebration will happen this coming month. If you've read last month's article on the Climate Strikes, you should have a good idea of where these things are moving. As was

“Through the working of trusts and the results of labor unions and strikes, the conditions of life in the city are constantly becoming more and more difficult. Serious troubles are before us, and for many family's removal from the cities will become a necessity.” (EGW Adventist Home 136)

Earth Day Sundays

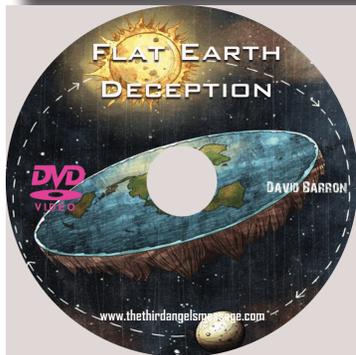

This all leading to Earth day which fell on April 22nd, 2019. Earth Day Sunday followed on the 28th as many churches came together to thank God for His creation. Churches are claiming it as a high holy day.

<http://www.vhchurch.org/earth-day-sunday-is-a-high-holy-day/>

This Catholic website discusses the correlation between the Sabbath and earth day. Apparently it was “the third commandment” according to the website. But the Bible tells us the Sabbath is the fourth commandment.

<https://www.crs.org/stories/earth-day-and-sabbath-commandment>

As disasters become more widespread and populous cities are destroyed such as happened with Paradise, CA. We will only see more push for these ideas until there is an eventual decree enforcing widespread Sunday worship.

Get the latest DVD's or booklets.

Pope Francis has said that the cause of the climate crisis has to do with “unbridled consumerism”.

<http://time.com/3583418/pope-francis-warns-g20-of-effect-of-unbridled-consumerism/>

In other words some consumers need to be bridled. In other words, some buying and selling needs to be restrained or restricted.

A climate emergency was declared in Welsh, Scotland, and then in the UK on May 1st, many are saying there is no telling where all of this is going to lead, but some of us understand.

Just what am I getting at here. It is really quite simple. Legislation is coming, the Pope has been calling for a New World Economic Order. <https://www.reuters.com/article/us-pope-latam-bolivia/pope-calls-for-new-economic-order-criticizes-capitalism-idUSKCN0PJ29B20150710>

Greta Thunberg recently backed a general climate strike however labour unions have said they have been slow to act concerning the climate strikes. But we’ve been told that they would be the ones who make things very oppressive to the point where we will be unable to live in the cities.

<https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2019/apr/22/greta-thunberg-backs-general-strike-climate-change-environment>

The Bible tells us that the mark of the beast is coming.

Rev 13:17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

The Beast is the Papacy which ruled the world for 1260 years using civil power until the wound of division between the church and State came in 1798. But we were told that a reunion of church and state would take place and that this deadly wound would be healed and furthermore that all the world would wonder after the beast. (Revelation 13:3, 12)

“Of course the Catholic Church claims that the change [Saturday Sabbath to Sunday] was her act... And the act is a mark of her ecclesiastical authority in religious things” (H.F. Thomas, Chancellor of Cardinal Gibbons).

“Sunday is our mark of authority... the church is above the Bible, and this transference of Sabbath observance is proof of that fact” (Catholic Record of London, Ontario Sept 1, 1923).

It amazes me that the document Laudato Si by Pope Francis which was being promoted by Greta Thunberg promotes Sunday keeping as a way to heal the planet. Furthermore, it amazes me that the Green New Deal is being promoted by the SUNrise movement. On top of this another movement was formed when many UN leaders went to India this year including French Prime Minister Emmanuel Macron called the Solar Alliance and they had a prayer to the Sun God at that time.

Why all of this worship by world leaders centering around the sun? In ancient Babylon Nimrod was the King shortly after the building of the tower of Babel, and when he died many believed that he went to live in the sun and they worshipped him as the sun god. This Babylonian worship system is certainly moved the world over.

With Donald Trump flip flopping on so many issues, and even endorsing forced vaccinations in New York State this month, as well as signing an executive order making the Sunday of hurricane Harvey a national day of prayer after his evangelical advisors came to him asking him to do so. Is it possible that he might flip flop on the climate agenda finally coming to endorse the United Nations Agenda 2030?

Considering the pressure, it should not surprise us if this does come to pass. It was on the advice of religious advisors that a decree went forth that no man in the Kingdom of Medo-Persia should make prayer to any god but the king in the time of Daniel. Daniel a righteous man was thrown in the lions den at the hands of a church and state union.

It was at the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon that 3 boys were thrown into a fiery furnace because they refused to bow down to the State enforced religious decree and worship a golden image. And it is Donald Trump wanting to give power back to the church which would form an image of the Papacy during the dark ages.

Whatever the case may be, whether it is Trump, Pence, or the next President of the United States, we will see national ruin which will lead to a national Sunday law, and many of us will not have built up a faith that can stand in this time to come.

It is so important that we are studying, learning and sharing these things that are coming to pass. Our faith must be built, rooted and grounded in truth. And Jesus has told us these things before they come to pass so that we might believe. Believing is important, because righteousness comes by faith. And we must ask as one man once asked “Lord increase my faith.”

WHAT A BLESSING – SPRING CAMP MEETING

Psa 133:1 A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

What a true blessing to be a part of this camp meeting. By the end of the meetings it could truly be declared that the Father and the Son's presence was among us. Christ our Passover was the center of everything. He is our everything.

We began the week with a series of talks and discussions concerning how to deal with differences. It is no secret that there are many differences among the professed people of God in this last time. But there was something amazing taken from these meetings. There was an understanding that for the most part among us there has been a general lack of patience with one another.

There have been times where people have felt that they have nothing more to talk about after an hour or two of talking on differences. This is an extreme example, some can make it 7 hours, but differences can only be eradicated by continuing to suffer long with one another. Sometimes it can take months, sometimes even years.

We had some differences talked about at these meetings. Some on Daniel 12 and the 1290 and 1335 and whether or not they would have a future fulfillment, and also differing views were presented concerning the King of the North in Daniel 11 and whether it was the Papacy or Turkey.

One thing that was clear in these discussions was that there was to be no lines drawn, no divisions, and no new sects formed because of differences. We were not AGAINST each other or on different teams, but ALL FOR each other, on each other's team and on Christ's team. The Spirit will guide us into all truth, and this promise was claimed. We realize that these issues are not going to be settled in one meeting. In fact we may still be talking about some of our differing views until Jesus comes.

However, there are some things that we know we must have a unity of faith in such as the doctrine of sin and righteousness, baptism, and what it truly means to be born again. There are still differences concerning these fundamental issues, however, much was accomplished in these meetings, and many were coming together in many things. As the Bible says "Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." (Pro 27:17) spirit and counting it all joy when we fall into diverse temptations. And what a learning experience it was.

At one point during the camp meeting George and Barb Gomoll were outside on the swings, and invited my wife Kellie. Well, something serious happened where Barb fell out of the swing from about 10 feet high and fractured many bones in her back as well as her breast bone. It really seemed to place a damper on the place.

Sometimes errors can go undiscerned for even years. Many of us have had issues that we didn't see and understand. Some of us believed in a Trinity and eventually realized that this doctrine was unbiblical. But we need to consider how we would treat ourselves even 5 years ago or 10 years ago when we didn't have the understanding on these issues that we may have today.

Truly the Lord was in this place, and the place was blessed. There was sweet fellowship, differences were set aside, and the countenances of many was reflecting the love of the savior towards one another.

Many testimonies were shared and reflection was made on where the Lord has led us all from. But furthermore, some great messages were given on praise, overcoming the complaining and discouraged

However, after the ambulance came, many of us went back into the meeting hall and we decided to have a testimony, prayer, and praise time. At first I exclaimed that it was God's appointed time, and shared some miracles that had happened in the past concerning other friends during this appointed time. A few years ago a man fell from a ladder, his memory was gone, and he was seriously injured. We had corporate prayer at the camp all week long, and we truly saw the Lord work during that time. And the man was almost fully restored, and it was a miracle that the doctors got to witness.

And so we all agreed that this was not to put a damper on the camp, we knew that part of the body was hurt, but we also know that all things work together for good to God's glory. And so we agreed that praise of His Holy name was the only option. We knew that God allowed nothing to happen to us except it be for the blessing to the world.

So we all prayed, and we trusted that God would work things out. Barb was released from the hospital in 3 days and came back to spend the last Sabbath at the meeting hall. She was in a serious amount of pain, but there was hope as we were told the recovery time would take about 8 weeks. What a trial, and sometimes we think of how hard it is to endure and definitely feel their pain. But what blessings can come.

In a couple of the meetings on the last great day of camp there was much talk of enduring trials without complaining, but instead praising his name. Lori Dooley gave a really blessed testimony and everyone was encouraged by it.

In Barb's extreme pain she couldn't sleep the night after. Sleep had been an issue since the injury. She woke up in the middle of the night in excruciating pain, but began to praise God for this trial. What a lesson was learned. Barb's pain disappeared, and she slept the entire night and never woke up for 8 hours straight. Amazing.

We have so many stories in our Bibles concerning great things that came from praising and trusting God through trials. This was probably the greatest thing that came out of this camp, was learning from these experiences. King Jehoshaphat was surrounded by armies with no escape. And they put the singers in the front and began to praise the Lord and a miracle happened.

2Ch 20:22 And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

But this wasn't the end, in the evening of the Sabbath, testimonies were given again, and many who weren't of the first service came to this one, some had come late in the week, and they saw the Spirit of God come in among us. After testimonies were shared concerning some amazing Christian experiences. An out of the blue foot washing took place, where the bowl and water was brought out and brethren made sure that we were leaving this meeting with any differences put away. Tears were shed, and hearts were cleaned, families were reunited in the bonds of love, and hearts were rended and broken. It was a true experience of the Christian Spirit that should be had among all the brethren. We need this between ourselves, and we all are looking forward to the next experience in the October camp meeting if God wills. Some of us also agreed to come together in June for Pentecost.

Malachi 3:16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

OVERCOMING COMPLAINING AND STRIFE

Have you ever had trials where you've fallen short and given way to frustration, overcome by emotions, anger, even to the point of having hatred in your heart towards someone that God told you in His word you should love. Jesus said "love your enemies." (Matt 5:44)

The Bible says "Do all things without murmurings and disputings:" (Phi 2:14)

But what about that guy who just cut you off on the street the other day? Or what about your wife who didn't have your dinner ready for you when you came home? Or what about your husband who didn't say I love you before he left for work? Or what about your child who left their toys on the floor and didn't clean up? Or what about the dog poop you stepped in walking to the park? Or what about the waiter who didn't ask if you wanted a refill or brought you the wrong food? Or what about the poor attendant at the cash register trying to make ends meet who isn't moving fast enough for you because you have to get to work? What about the red light that you just got on the way to an appointment?

What about complaining and arguing when something isn't going my way? Was Jesus just saying to try our best.

Have you ever had a bad day and felt that you were justified in complaining about it to everyone you come in contact with?

James 1:2-4 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

What about when my son got killed in an accident? What about when I get cancer? What about when my car gets scratched? What about if my wife cheats on me? Count it all joy? YES.

This is about to get really serious isn't it? I've brought up a lot of practical situations, and in these situations do we see practical Christians? Not very often. Most Christians don't handle these situations counting it all joy and letting patience have its perfect work. In fact, I might even say that on very rare occasions do we see these attributes in most Christians today. Why not? It really comes down to one thing, and that is our faith. God wants us to take Him at His word. His word has the power in it, but the flesh, and the natural feelings often get the better of most, many times even the best of Christians.

The Bible tells us regarding Israel in the wilderness, that they had some issues with the food God was serving them. They began to complain about his waiting on them. The waiter wasn't giving enough options on the menu according to them. And the Bible tells us what happened.

1Corinthians 10:10-11 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

Pretty serious judgment. And the same judgment will come on those who practice complaining in this last day. Therefore how is it that we can overcome? We need to look to Christ. Christ was 40 days in the wilderness and didn't eat, and not a complaint came out of his mouth. We are told the following:

Deuteronomy 8:2-3 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know;that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

In other words, when suffered to hunger, we are to learn to trust the word of God and not complain and dispute. Jesus walked up the hill, and we could say that if anyone ever had a right to complain it was him. He healed the sick, cleansed the lepers, did good everywhere he went and never complained. He was whipped and beaten, his disciples denied him, and he never complained, the Bible says he opened not his mouth.

And so what about us? When God allows it to rain on us, why is He allowing bad things to happen to good people? So that we might learn that man is not dictated by the feelings or the circumstances, or the people around us. But rather we are what we are by the grace of God. We are what we are because of what Christ did on the cross. And therefore when squeezed, the fruit that comes out is only good fruit.

If you squeeze an apple you get apple juice. If you squeeze an orange you get orange juice. If you got any orange juice when squeezing an apple or viceversa that would just be weird. So why isn't it weird that when we squeeze a Christian we find everything else coming out but Christ. Are we deceived? Regarding the works of the flesh we are told that "they which do such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God." (Gal 5:21)

So how do we think we can justify doing those things such as strife or disputings and complainings and yet believe that we will be there in heaven. These character issues must die. But many have fought the battle and lost so many times that they have felt that this is just the way they are and sadly many will seek to invent a new standard so that they might inherit the Kingdom of God. But the Bible is clear, and it is the standard. And for those who are changing the word of God to suit their emotions, I counsel you to let the word of God change you so that you are no longer guided by your emotions.

Feelings can be the devil's playground, and he would certainly have us complaining about why we have to go through or put up with what we do. But our Father wants us to shine in these situations remembering that "we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." (Rom 8:28)

Have you been touched the wrong way? Have you been spoken to the wrong way? Picked on? Put down? Has someone destroyed your property? Are you suffering with a disease? A disability? God has suffered us that we might learn that we like Jesus can live by every word that proceeds out of His mouth. How must we react when we go through these things.

Count it all joy... Knowing that everything God allows us to go through is for a blessing to the world. Remember it, if we don't, we may be holding His hand back when the time comes where by praise and trust He could have worked in our lives. - DB

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are a little late with the newsletter this month because of the camp last month. There is also a camp meeting this month we will be attending in Arkansas. For those interested please contact me for details. dbarron@gmx.com
1-352-682-0275

We are also intending to join a weekend camp meeting in North Carolina next month as well. So please bear with us as we seek to keep you updated as well regarding current prophetic events. We know that these things are coming to pass and we are very appreciative of those who continue to uphold the work of this ministry.

Also, we will be having another big camp meeting in October. So please mark these dates on your calendar. You do not want to miss it.

We have recently been blessed with a high powered computer that can run virtual reality, however we are at the present time looking to get the virtual reality gear so that we can do some fairs. We have many DVD's and study guides and books to hand out. We also have many health things we would like to share. But we are also looking for other books such as Great Controversy and others as we are aiming to do an outreach ministry in this direction. You probably realize that some of these things require funding in order to continue to produce these materials We have been encouraged in this direction by some things that were shared at the camp meeting, and we believe that the people are truly hungry for the word and this is a foot in the door. If the Lord is leading you to want to help in this direction praise God. We thank you for anything that will help in this work. - DB
